

Book Proposal

Please complete and return with an annotated table of contents and sample chapter or excerpt, either in as a Word document or PDF file. Send this proposal form to CEC Publications Manager Al Rickard at alr@cec.sped.org. Questions? Call him at 703-402-9713. Thank you.

Title
Author(s)	Length of manuscript (word count)
Overview of content – What is the subject of this book? What is the significance of the proposed publication to the field (e.g., new subject area or new research; adds to or updates current literature; responds to a current problem, issue, or concern)?
Audience for the book
CEC members include postsecondary institution faculty members, researchers, special education administrators, general and special education teachers, parents, and others who work with youth with disabilities—in the United States and worldwide.
What is the primary or intended audience for this book?	What are the secondary audiences for this book? (List all)
Is the book suitable for course adoption? If so, what type of course(s)?
Comparable products
Please list other publications which address this topic. Summarize editorial similarities and differences and provide publication details (price, number of pages, year of publication), and any special attributes.
What sets your proposed book apart from these competing publications?

To which professional or trade journals should the published work be sent for review?
What professional organizations or other groups (e.g., policy makers, parent advocacy) might be interested in this book?
About the author(s)
Please provide a brief biography, including works published and professional affiliations; you may attach resumes or curriculum vitae.
Author contact information ( street address and e-mail; telephone number )	Date submitted