ABOUT THE OPPORTUNITY: Sheldon Pines is a K-12 center-based school for students with significant behavioral and emotional impairments. We are looking for a special education teacher who is knowledgeable and passionate about working with students with significant challenges and believes in their success as much as we do. It is our goal to ensure that each student has the opportunity to be in their least restrictive environment while gaining the skills necessary to be able to return back to their local district when ready.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR: We are looking for a passionate individual who wants to work with a unique population. We are seeking an individual to be creative and meet the unique needs of our learners. This teaching position will maintain a heavy focus on providing our students Physical Education with other curricula utilized or emphasized as student needs present.

In particular, the ideal candidate would have:

- A valid Michigan teaching certificate in special education, EI or AI endorsement would be ideal.
- Experience in being a part of a team that conducts Functional Behavior Assessments (FBAs) and Positive Behavior Support Plans (PBSPs).
- Demonstrated success in communicating effectively with administrators, teachers, students, and support staff.
- Ability to differentiate instruction and adjust based on data
- Ability to think flexibly and to adapt work to the needs of students.
- Experience, training, and strong interest in P.E. strongly preferred. Certification in P.E. (along with Special Education) preferred.
- Knowledge of Adaptive PE preferred.
- Knowledge and experience with PBIS, MTSS, Social Emotional Learning, SBT/PFA and/or other related areas preferred.
- CPI Training or a willingness to be CPI trained.

Position type: Regular and continuous

Schedule: Full Time, school-year

Compensation: Very competitive salary ($46,000 - $105,000) based on experience, education, and expertise

Benefits: Full and comprehensive benefits available, including medical, dental, and vision family coverage with the option to take cash in lieu of coverage.
