Please note closed captioning is available for particular sessions due to breakout structure or logistical reasons.

Saturday, July 8 Breakout A, 2:25-3:05PM

now what?build a strong, cohesive, and consistent brand identify and tools that CEC has to support you at every stage in the process. Participants will identify how to use key platform features to spread their message, engage with members, and bring in new following. Location: Bannekerweeksite frequently and poist on social media at least monthly.weeksite frequently and poist on social media at least monthly.Marketing 101: BundeerDanielleThis session is catered to components working general marketing. Here, we will cover website essentials that can articulate your purpose and build and support your reputations to that members find your unique website helpful, informative and catered to them. In addition, we will cover social media basics, including thems to consider and how to prepare for launching a new Instagram, Twitter or Facebook page. Location: WrightAvailableGood Govermance *Chad RummelIn this session, we will explore various govermance questions and explore some succeed with members of the CEC Facebook page. Location: WrightAll participants welcome.AvailableHelp your members professional development, resources, andBrooke Massey, Stonad with members of the CEC Professional development, information, and resources that cover specially vander/PloegAvailableAvailableHelp your members professional development, resources, andBrooke Massey, Stonad with members of the CEC Professional development, information, and resources that cover specially vander/PloegAvailableAvailableHelp your members succeed with resources, andBrooke Massey, Stonadmit andIn participants welcome.Availa	Title	Facilitator(s)	Description	Prerequisites & Intended Audience	Closed Captioning
Marketing 101: Building a Strong Foundation         Danielle         This session is catered to components working the castability their best protocors related to general marketing. Here, we will cover website essentiats that can articulate your purpose and build and support your reputation so that members find your unique website helpful, informative and catered to them. In addition, we will cover reputation so that filter to consider and how to prepare for jacuss who have "basic" websites, with little component-resetted content and brainformative, or website that have not been updated in the last six months.         Available           Good Goremance *         Chad Rummel         In this session, not protocol prepare to repare for particular to consider and how to prepare for particular to consider and how to prepare for particular to consider and how to prepare for particular to repare to repare to repare to scoresful practices for good governance systems. We will build off of the Legal Pirtals session and Volunteer Management session, all while dwing advisedue planning. Bring your questions and come prepared to share what's working or not working for your organization. Location: Edition DABC         All participants welcome.         Available           Help your members stores, and Sandards and Accreditation*         Brooke Massey, Brad Duncan and Lauric Vanderfloog         Brooke Massey, Brad Duncan and Lauric Vanderfloog         Brooke Massey, Brad Duncan and Lauric Vanderfloog         Available         Available           File         Diru Si for a durat the information that is most as across the spectrum of special ducation, versions, and concerdion, well website to core specially and engagement. Weit shere and careacte bin protocorginiphing market and careacte band protocors in the clas	Marketing: You have your foundation,		standard best practices for marketing and how to leverage your components' social media and website. This session will also highlight how to build a strong, cohesive, and consistent brand identity and tools that CEC has to support you at every stage in the process. Participants will identify how to use key platform features to spread their message, engage with members, and bring in new following. Location:	Chapter would be the attended audience. This session is meant for those components that update their website frequently and post on social	Available
Good Governance *       Chad Rummel Governance (uestions and explore some systems. We will build off of the Legal Ptfalls ession and Volunteer Management session, all while diving into committee management session, all well diving into committee management, agenda-setting, board orientation and evaluation, and strategic planning. Bring your questions and come prepared to share what's working or not working for your organization. Location: Edison DABC       All participants welcome.       Available         Help your members succesd with CECs professional development, resources, and Standards and Accreditation*       Brooke Massey, Brd Duncan and Laurie VanderPilog       Brooke Massey, and Laurie VanderPilog       Dio us for a chat with members of the CEC Professional Affairs team! well share with you how CEC can support your members with: • A vast library of professional development, resources, and Standards and Accreditation*       All participants welcome.       Available         DEEA - Do the Work!       Gennith Johnson       For clession Vell thear from representatives most relevant and meaningful to your members while increasing the value of their membership and engagement. We hop to see you there! Location: Bell       All participants welcome.       Not available.         DEEA - Do the Work!       Gennith Johnson       In this session well thear from representatives from the Division for Early Childhood on how they be elevated their diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) efforts through engagement, cullaboration, and accessibility (DEIA) efforts through engagement, cullaboration, and accessibility offors through engagement, cullaboration, and accessibility offors through engagement, cullaboration, and accessibility offors through engagement, cullaboration, ano	Strong		This session is catered to components working to establish their best practices related to general marketing. Here, we will cover website essentials that can articulate your purpose and build and support your reputation so that members find your unique website helpful, informative and catered to them . In addition, we will cover social media basics, including items to consider and how to prepare for launching a new Instagram, Twitter or	an existing website, preferably through CEC or are interested in launching a website for their Unit or Division. This session is ideal for groups who have "basic" websites, with little component-created content and branching/links, or websites that have not been updated in the last six	Available
Help your members succeed with CECs       Brad Duncan and Laurie       Join us for a chat with members of the CEC Professional Affairs team!       All participants welcome.       Available         Professional development, resources, and Standards and Accreditation*       VanterPloeg       Value of the second affairs team!       All participants welcome.       Available         Standards and Accreditation*       Value of the second affairs team!       Value of the second affairs team!       All participants welcome.       Available         Definition*       Value of the second affairs team!       Value of the second affairs team!       All participants welcome.       Available         Definition*       Value of the second affairs team!       Value of the second affairs team!       All participants welcome.       Available         Definition*       Value of the second affairs team!       Value of the second affairs team in producing highly qualified education professional for roles in the classroom and beyond.       Tools and resources to help you members while increasing the value of their membership and engagement. We hope to see you there! Location: Bel       All participants welcome.       Not available.         DEIA - Do the Work!       Gennith Johnson & Peggy Kemp       In this session we'll hear from representatives through engagement, collaboration, and connection. We'll elam more about CECs recent DELA efforts and have small group discussions on how division and unit leaders can best support		Chad Rummel	In this session, we will explore various governance questions and explore some successful practices for good governance systems. We will build off of the Legal Pitfalls session and Volunteer Management session, all while diving into committee management, agenda-setting, board orientation and evaluation, and strategic planning. Bring your questions and come prepared to share what's working or not working for your organization.	All participants welcome.	Available
Work!       & Peggy Kemp       from the Division for Early Childhood on how they've elevated their diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) efforts through engagement, collaboration, and connection. We'll learn more about CEC's recent DEIA efforts and have small group discussions on how division and unit leaders can best support DEIA within their work.         Location: Whitney	succeed with CEC's professional development, resources, and	Brad Duncan and Laurie	Join us for a chat with members of the CEC Professional Affairs team! We'll share with you how CEC can support your members with: • A vast library of professional development, information, and resources that cover specialty areas across the spectrum of special education. • Six sets of Professional Practice Standards to support higher education programs in producing highly qualified education professionals for roles in the classroom and beyond. • Tools and resources to help you highlight, repurpose, and curate the information that is most relevant and meaningful to your members while increasing the value of their membership and engagement. We hope to see you there! Location: Bell	All participants welcome.	Available
			In this session we'll hear from representatives from the Division for Early Childhood on how they've elevated their diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA) efforts through engagement, collaboration, and connection. We'll learn more about CEC's recent DEIA efforts and have small group discussions on how division and unit leaders can best support DEIA within their work.	All participants welcome.	Not available.
	Breakout B, 3	3:15-3:55PM	•

Title	Facilitator(s)	Description	Prerequisites & Intended Audience	Closed Captioning
Help your Members Succeed with CEC's	Brooke Massey, Brad Duncan and Laurie VanderPloeg	Join us for a chat with members of the CEC Professional Affairs team! We'll share with you how CEC can support your members with:	All participants welcome.	Available

Professional Development, Resources, and Standards and Resources, and Standards and		<ul> <li>A vast library of professional development,</li> </ul>
Standards and		information, and resources that cover specialty areas across the spectrum of special education.
		Six sets of Professional Practice Standards to Accreditation*		support higher education programs in producing highly gualified education professionals for roles in the classroom and beyond.
		<ul> <li>Tools and resources to help you highlight,</li> </ul> repurpose, and curate the information that is most relevant and meaningful to your members while increasing the value of their membership and engagement.
		We hope to see you there!
		Location: Bell
Board Meeting	Danielle	Exactly as it sounds! We're bringing it back to	All participants welcome.	Not available Basics	Wieczorek	"basics." Together, we will review the	Recommended attendees: New board essentials: quorum, board member updates,	members, committee chairs Robert's Rules, preparing an agenda, what "good" minutes include, and how to establish your meeting cadence. We will also share a list of tools that can help organize and support you along the way.
	.	Location: Whitney
	Chad Rummel	For those attending who are staff of a Unit,	Is staff of a CEC Division, Unit, Sub-	Available
Staff		Division, or Subdivision, this roundtable is a	division or chapter Roundtable		chance to come together and talk about your work, ask questions, and look for opportunities to support each other. The session will be facilitated by CEC's Executive Director but driven by your questions."= Location: Edison DABC Tips on	Brannan and	Planning your first in-person event as a	Component leaders who are preparing	Available
	Sharyn	component leader? Needing to find a location	for their first in-person event or are	Available Person Event	Sharyn	for an upcoming in-person event? This is for	wanting to plan an in-person event you! Together we will take a look at what goes	wanting to plan an in person event into planning an in-person event and considerations that should be made.
		Location: Banneker
	T 1 0111
Supporting	lavlor (Johns	Join us as we highlight CEC's state partnership	Unit leaders interested in building	Available
Supporting Farly Career	Taylor Gibbons & Gennith	Join us as we highlight CEC's state partnership with the Ohio Department of Education, Learn	Unit leaders interested in building relationships with their state's	Available
Early Career	l aylor Gibbons & Gennith Johnson	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn	relationships with their state's	Available
Early Career Teachers	& Gennith	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in	Available
Early Career Teachers through State	& Gennith	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their	Available
Early Career Teachers	& Gennith	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in	Available
Early Career Teachers through State	& Gennith	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their	Available
Early Career Teachers through State	& Gennith Johnson	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing.	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their	Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4:	& Gennith Johnson	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing.	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended	Available Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title Advanced Membership Strategies:	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced Membership Strategies: When, Why	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance!	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute.	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s)	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Gevin Jacobs	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.)	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member D	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their	Closed Captioning
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding W	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Gevin Jacobs	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding 101 -They're	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way?	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics down-consistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the basics like pulling membership lists and welcome	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics down-consistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign D New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree!	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the basics like pulling membership lists and welcome letter basics (including recommended tools and	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree! Now What?	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Kevin Jacobs Danielle	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CE staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the basics like pulling membership lists and welcome letter basics (including recommended tools and templates)!	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree! Now What?	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Gevin Jacobs Danielle Wieczorek	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership and prepare members for an impactful membership lists and welcome letter basics (including recommended tools and templates)! Location: Banneker	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning         Available         Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeree! Now What?	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Gevin Jacobs Danielle Wieczorek	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics downconsistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership experience with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the basics like pulling membership lists and welcome letter basics (including recommended tools and templates)! Location: Banneker State level policy and advocacy presents an opportunity to educate, build momentum and support, and ultimately impact change in your	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning         Available         Available
Early Career Teachers through State Partnerships Breakout C, 4: Title F Advanced K Membership Strategies: When, Why and How to Launch Your Own Campaign New Member Onboarding 101 -They're Heeeeree! Now What? State Level Policy and	& Gennith Johnson :05-4:45PM Facilitator(s) Gevin Jacobs Danielle Wieczorek	with the Ohio Department of Education. Learn more about how the Ohio Unit connects early career teachers with opportunities for mentorship, collaboration, professional development, and resource sharing. Location: Wright Description You already have the basics down-consistent welcome letters, programs and initiatives to hold onto the members you haveand you're ready for more. But how do you keep them engaged and connected? This session will offer you guidance! Together, we will discuss the elements of a successful membership campaign, how to build it and when to execute. Location: Wright New members are joining CEC every day! Have you wondered how your component can/should support their "onboarding" process along the way? This session is for you! In this session, CEC staff highlights the onboarding support offered to new members and how components can support their transition into membership and prepare members for an impactful membership and prepare members for an impactful membership and prepare with initiatives. Fear not! This session is focused on the basics like pulling membership lists and welcome letter basics (including recommended tools and templates)! Location: Banneker State level policy and advocacy presents an opportunity to educate, build momentum and	relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. Prerequisites & Intended Audience Components with existing new member support/onboarding practices (ex. Consistently sends welcome emails, hosts a new member meet and greet program regularly, etc.) Components who need to refine their new member support/onboarding practices; components who do not send welcome letters to new members.	Closed Captioning         Available         Available

	applied to advocacy at home. In this session you will learn from each other about successful state- level advocacy and have the opportunity to raise Session facilitators will offer strategies to support your Unit/Division in state level advocacy and how to work together with CEC to advance a state policy agenda.
	Location: Edison DABC
Brannan Meyers	What can your Unit do to support student chapters? Join this CEC staff session to learn more about what student chapters need to be successful, how (and what) information you can collect from your groups to inform your support, and what your advisors need. Please come prepared to share your current practices, what's working, and where you feel your Unit needs guidance. Location: Whitney	Units with student chapters or Units with existing chapters looking to build/support student chapters.	Not available
Brooke Massey	Do you want to know what your members really think? Do you want to find out how you can improve their experience? If so, then you need to survey your members! CEC's PD team will walk you through some high-level survey guidelines, tips, and recommendations to get your survey plan underway. Surveying your members is a great way to get valuable feedback and improve your member experience. So, what are you waiting for? Start surveying today! Location: Bell	All participants welcome.	Available
		will learn from each other about successful state- level advocacy and have the opportunity to raise questions about challenges faced at home. Session facilitators will offer strategies to support your Unit/Division in state level advocacy and how to work together with CEC to advance a state policy agenda.Brannan MeyersWhat can your Unit do to support student chapters? Join this CEC staff session to learn more about what student chapters need to be successful, how (and what) information you can collect from your groups to inform your support, and what your advisors need. Please come prepared to share your current practices, what's working, and where you feel your Unit needs guidance.Brooke MasseyDo you want to know what your members really think? Do you want to find out how you can improve their experience? If so, then you need to survey your members! CEC's PD team will walk you through some high-level survey guidelines, tips, and recommendations to get your survey plan underway. Surveying your members is a great way to get valuable feedback and improve your member experience. So, what are you waiting for? Start surveying today!	will leam from each other about successful state- level advocacy and have the opportunity to raise questions about challenges faced at home. Session facilitators will offer strategies to support your Unit/Division in state level advocacy and how to work together with CEC to advance a state policy agenda. Location: Edison DABCUnits with student chapters or Units with existing chapters or Units with existing chapters or Units with existing chapters looking to build/support student chapters? Join this CEC staff session to learn more about what student chapters need to be successful, how (and what) information you can collect from your groups to inform your support, and what your advisors need. Please come prepared to share your current practices, what's working, and where you feel your Unit needs guidance. Location: WhitneyAll participants welcome.Brooke MasseyDo you want to know what your members really think? Do you want to find out how you can improve their experience? If so, then you need to survey your members! CECS PD team will walk you through some high-level survey guidelines, tips, and recommendations to get your survey plan underway. Surveying your members is a great way to get valuable feedback and improve your waiting for? Start surveying today!All participants welcome.

Sunday, July 9 Breakout D, 9:00-10:00

Title	Facilitator(s)	Description	Prerequisites & Intended Audience	Closed Captioning
Good Governance *	Chad Rummel	In this session, we will explore various governance questions and explore some successful practices for good governance systems. We will build off of the Legal Pitfalls session and Volunteer Management session, all while diving into committee management, agenda-setting, board orientation and evaluation, and strategic planning. Bring your questions and come prepared to share what's working or not working for your organization. Location: Edison DABC	All participants welcome.	Available
Sustaining the Volunteer Experience: Volunteer Transitions and Onboarding	Danielle Wieczorek	Do you have an organized transition for new board members? What about committee members or your one-time volunteers? Let's iron out the information your volunteers need to be successful, elements of a successful board/officer transition, and why this is so important in sustaining the member and volunteer experience. Location: Whitney	All participants welcome.	Not available
Email Communications - Tips, Tools and To-Dos	Annie Drinkard	Let's talk strategy! Email communication strategy, that is! If you're already sending emails to members your members (newsletters, invitations to conferences/calls for proposals, promoting events, professional development, etc.), join us as we review the essential steps to ensure you're reaching your audience, communicating with purpose, using your brand, and thinking and working smarternot harder. Location: Banneker	All participants welcome.	Available
Maximize Your Reach: Grow Your Membership through State Partnerships	Kevin Jacobs & Gennith Johnson	Have you wondered how Unit could build a partnership with your state's Department of Education/Board of Education? Join us as we highlight what a state partnership is built upon, how your Unit can start to build a relationship with your Department of Education/Board of Education and what CEC does to support existing state partnerships. Location: Wright	Unit leaders interested in building relationships with their state's BOE/DOE. Unit leaders interested in building a state partnership with their BOE/DOE. All participants welcome.	Available

Making	Brooke Massey &	Are you looking to make your Unit or Division	All participants welcome.	Not available
Intentional	Laurie Vander Ploeg	stronger? Partnerships with other CEC Units
Connections -		and Divisions can be a great way to expand
Partnering Across		your reach, share resources, and collaborate Units/Divisions		on new (or already in place) initiatives. In this interactive think tank, we will discuss the benefits of cross-CEC partnerships and provide tips for collaborating with your peers to spark creativity for post-Leadership Institute initiatives.
		Location: Bell

* Next to a title indicates the session is offered multiple times