WPS supports training future educational, clinical, and health professionals through our Graduate School Alliance Program (GSAP). As a member of this program, college and university graduate professors and instructors can receive up to three complimentary WPS online assessments annually. Access to these assessments assists graduate students in expanding their knowledge in the areas of autism, dyslexia, oral language, learning skills, motor development, sensory processing, social/emotional/behavioral development, cognition, and adaptive functioning; students can improve their skills in evaluation, identification/diagnosis, and intervention development. GSAP members may also be eligible to purchase additional protocols/forms with the WPS Educational Discount, which is provided on a pre-approved, order-by-order basis.
